PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

Messrs. W. F. Strawbridge and W. F. Wiley, of Norrisville, Md., are in Roanoke with a view of investing in real estate.

Mr. R. M. Lookwood was in the city yesterday prospecting for investments in Roanoke real estate.

Mr. J. R. Strickler, proprietor of the Strickler House at Front Royal, has been spending a day or two taking in the sights of the "Magic City."

Mrs. Dr. Stovall and daughter were at Hotel Felix yesterday.

Mary Jane Allen was arrested last night by Officer Peyzold on a warrant sworn out by Lou Payne.

AMUSEMENTS.

Some of the Attractions for the Next Few Days.

"Bootles' Baby," a military comedy, adapted from the novel of that name by James Strange Winter, will be presented at the Opera House to-morrow night. The cast is quite a strong one. The part of "Mignon," otherwise known as "Bootles' Baby," is taken by little Josie Arthur.

She is one of the numerous child actresses that have sprung up within the last few years and compares favorably with Elsie Leslie, Tommy Russell and others of that class.

Those that have read the novel will appreciate the situations in the play, and a large house is predicted for Saturday night.

Evangeline will appear at the Opera House the 24th inst. Of this the New York Daily News says: "Rice's 'Evangeline' is a household word as well known as the author from whom the story was taken. Miss Geraldine McCann was beautiful as 'Gabriel,' her trim figure, graceful, easy, off-hand manner and sweet, ringing voice winning instant commendation from her auditors. Miss Lillian Walters, as 'Evangeline,' sang the numbers allotted her with skill and expression. Richard Harlow was a lovely lump of flesh, mountainous as 'Catherine.' Bernard J. Reilly was a humorous 'Le Blanc' and James S. Maffit an admirable 'Lone Fisherman.' The 'Wheeling Intelligencer' says of the 'Little Nugget' which will appear the 25th: 'Last evening the 'Little Nugget' company opened a three nights' engagement at the Grand Opera House. In 'Little Nugget,' in some respects the very funniest play ever seen on a Wheeling stage. The fame of the comedy and the actors had preceded it here, and the house was packed clear to the doors. And how the enormous crowd did yell with laughter and make the walls ring with applause. The company is composed of capable people, and there is a good deal of unusually nice singing and dancing, but the fun is the feature.'

DIED IN A FOREIGN LAND.

A Brother of Officer Creasy Dies of Small Pox.

Officer Creasy, of the police force, has received a month's leave of absence.

He will proceed on Monday to Dallas, Texas, and from thence to Eagle Pass, to settle up the affairs of his brother, who died last Friday at Piedras Negras, Mexico.

The deceased who was a native of Bedford county, this State, has been in Texas and Mexico for the past nine years, where he has been employed as engineer on the various railroads in that section. As his death was due to small pox, it will not be permitted to ship the remains to Virginia of final interment.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

It is gratifying to the friends to see the rapidly increasing interest which is being taken by the young men in the Young Men's Christian Association. The rooms, though very inaccessible, being on the third floor, are frequented by an average of about fifty men per day. The papers and magazines are being read with good relish.

The spiritual work is also greatly strengthened. Just five weeks since a social religious service, to be held every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock was commenced. Although the first service was thoroughly advertised, only nine were present. It has steadily grown and this is the ratio, 9, 11, 21, 22 and 25.

Acknowledgment is hereby made of the gift to the association of a valuable lot of magazines through the kindness of Mrs. C. G. Eddy. Thanks.

MAYOR'S COURT.

A Short Docket Before Hizz Zoner Yesterday.

Mayor Evans had a short docket yesterday, a fact which was due to the miserable apology for a cell room which exists in the wooden shell at Campbell and Roanoke streets, and not to the inefficiency of the police.

George W. Anthony, who was delivering his Uncle Mark's stage-worn oration to an admiring audience on Railroad avenue Wednesday afternoon, was called off the stage by Officer Weedon and carried to the station-house. Mayor Evans taxed the show $5, and as there were no box receipts George had to produce the $5 from the earnings of his occupation as a tinner, which calling he follows when not elated by moonshine.

William Brown, a negro, was inviting the denizens of Railroad avenue to mortal combat Wednesday afternoon in a profane and boisterous manner when Officer Bower gathered him in. Mayor Evans has set the scale of prices for that luxury on Railroad avenue at $5, which amount Brown had to pay for his liberty.

H. C. Deale, for selling unwholesome fish at the market, was fined $5.

Mary Wells and Mattie Stewart indulged in a billingsgate contest on Railroad avenue Tuesday evening, and each was fined $5 and costs for using profane and obscene language during the progress of the match.

Mary Wells also had a similar tourney with another harridan of the same locality Wednesday night, and her case was continued until her opponent can be captured.

J. W. Deyrie, a white man, undertook the task of thrashing everybody in a Railroad avenue boarding house, from the landlady down, Wednesday at noon, and in a measure succeeded. His folio cost him $11.50, which amount Mayor Evans collected from him yesterday.

Robbery on Railroad Avenue.

Stephen Hughes, a negro, was knocked down and robbed of $15 in one of the numerous joints on Railroad avenue at 7:30 o'clock last night.

The officers were immediately on the trail and by 8 o'clock Officer Tensley had secured the thief, one Stephen Mills, a negro.

Robberies in that quarter have been very numerous in the past, but owing to the vigilance of the police on that beat, are gradually growing less.

There is no need to buy a Baltimore Philadelphia or New York paper to find the news. By subscribing for THE TIMES you can have it served to you every morning at your breakfast table twelve hours in advance of the Northern papers.

Hustings Court Yesterday.

In the hustings court yesterday the following business was disposed of:

Bettie Hankins was allowed a pension of $30 annually.

The chancery case of G. W. Combett vs. W. P. and J. C. Moomaw and others was dismissed.

The verdict of the jury in the case of R. H. Day vs. Moomaw, Myers and others was confirmed by the court.

A handsome upright piano, 7½ octaves, full metal frame, with plush stool and cover, for $250 cash or $275 on easy payments is one of the many bargains the Hobbie Music Co., Lynchburg, Va., offer you. They also have a fine line of Knabe and Kraneich & Bach pianos. Call and examine their stock.

The Lucky Ones.

The following are the fortunate persons who secured lots in the regular monthly drawing of the Co-Operative Land Company yesterday: Miss Effie Leonard, Charles L. Williams, W. H. Wilmont, K. Baudel, W. H. Stiff, W. F. Allison.

Friday Evening Meetings.

A series of special services will be held in St. John's (Episcopal) Church on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia, will officiate on Friday the 21st instant.
